

International Conference Psychology and the Conduct of Everyday Life

RUC, June 26-28, 2013

Conference Program

All sessions will take place in building 30 except the keynote and plenary discussion sessions, which will take place in the large auditorium in building 00.

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4
8:00-17:30	Registration Building 30, ground floor
9:00-9:30	Welcome & Introduction Building 00, auditorium
9:30-10:45	Keynote Ole Dreier, University of Copenhagen & Lillehammer University College: Conduct of everyday life in psychological research and practice Building 00, auditorium, Chair: Charlotte Højholt
11:15-12:45	Theorizing everyday life Chair: Janni Berthou Hermansen Karl E. Scheibe, Wesleyan University: The drama of everyday life Allan Westerling, Roskilde University: Everyday life and discursive psychology Anke Werani, University Munich: Constructing everyday life through language activity	Symposium: Taking the everyday life of children and young people seriously: Life mode interviews serving developmental psychology Chair: Agnes Andenæs Anne Jansen, Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Science: The representation of child protection services in the narratives of young people living in residential care Anita Sundnes, University of Oslo: Parents' regulation of infants' sleep-wake cycle: Messages from investigating practices of everyday life Agnes Andenæs, University of Oslo: Details matter: Love and care in same-gendered families	Critical health psychology and the conduct of everyday life Chair: Kasper A. Kristensen Kasper A. Kristensen, Roskilde University: The everyday conduct of life as a potent concept for a critical health psychology Anne Marché Paillé & Pascal Paillé, Université Laval: What can we learn from the "lack" of disgust of gerontological nurse body work? Ditte Stilling Borchorst, Roskilde University: Community alarms, recognition, and elderly people's conduct of everyday life	Symposium: Young human beings' conduct of everyday life with media Chair: Niklas A. Chimirri Niklas A. Chimirri, Roskilde University: The technological socio-materiality of kindergarten children's conduct of everyday life Steffen Eisentraut, University of Wuppertal: Mobile interaction orders among teenagers: Self-socialization through the use of smartphones Ditte Dalum Christoffersen, Roskilde University, Denmark: Around a whiteboard in grade 7a
12:45-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Latin American perspectives on the conduct of everyday life Chair: Peter Busch-Jensen Fernando Lacerda Jr., Federal University of Goiás: Liberation psychology and the need to challenge power: Tasks for psychology Michi Almer, Amsterdam: The work of Pichon Rivière: An Argentinean approach to the conduct of everyday life David Pavón-Cuéllar, Universidad Michoacana de San Nicolás de Hidalgo Morelia: Jacques Lacan and the Other's conduct of everyday life	Symposium: Rhythms and practices in everyday life of families in transition Chair: Pirjo Korvela Kristiina Aalto, National Consumer Research Center: The rhythms of daily life in the transition to parenthood in 1979 and 2009 Anu Raijas, National Consumer Research Center: The everyday activities in families with small children and the challenges of social change Taina Kyrönlampi, HUMAK University of Applied Sciences: Primary school children's experiences on daily living Discussant: Pernille Hviid, University of Copenhagen	Symposium: The concept of "conduct of everyday life" in practice research Chair: Tove Borg Tine Aagaard, University of Greenland: Everyday life with illness Helle Marie Christensen, University of Southern Denmark and Odense University Hospital: Exploration and development of practice with non-invasive ventilation based on the patients' and healthcare professionals' perspectives on the treatment Elise Bromann Bukhave, University of Southern Denmark and University College Zealand: Activity problems in everyday life: Patient perspectives of living with hand osteoarthritis Stina Meyer Larsen, University College Lillebaelt & Tove Borg, Aarhus University: Conduct of everyday life in bachelor students' practice research	Teaching and learning Chair: Anja Hvidtfeldt Stanek Roland Bloch & Monique Lathan, Martin-Luther-University: Happy to teach: Empowered teaching faculty at German universities Jacob Klitmøller, Aarhus University: Students' relations to educational arrangements Charlotte Jonasson, Aarhus Universitet: Attending the education of attention: preparing for apprenticeship in everyday life in a Danish school

15:30-17:00	Personality and everyday living Chair: Magnus Dahl Sofya Nartova-Bochaver, Moscow State University of Psychology and Education: The personal sovereignty: The way to respect others and to defend oneself Lasse Meinert Jensen, University of Copenhagen: The relevance of "personality" for the personal conduct of everyday life: A conceptual defense	Symposium: Rhythms and practices in everyday life of families in transition: Part II Chair: Pirjo Korvela Sanna Sekki & Pirjo Korvela, University of Helsinki: Drifting daily life Marja Saarihahti, Pirjo Korvela & Sanna Sekki, University of Helsinki: The sequence method in changing daily rhythm of families with children Sari Kivilehto, University of Helsinki: The daily rhythm of elderly and independent living Discussant: Ole Dreier, University of Copenhagen	Symposium: Doing 'psychological therapy' outside of the psychological clinic Chair: Elisabeth Muth Andersen Catherine E. Brouwee & Gitte Rasmussen, University of Southern Denmark: "It's your image": How do images occur in interaction? Ann Katrine Marstrand & Catherine E. Brouwer, University of Southern Denmark: Fading memories in everyday interaction Elisabeth Muth Andersen, University of Southern Denmark: Dealing with emotional distress while experiencing health problems	Symposium: Technology, learning and the conduct of everyday life Chairs: Ines Langemeyer & Ernst Schraube Athanasios Marvakis, University of Thessaloniki: Is learning (only) a technology for/in action? Ines Langemeyer, University of Tübingen: Cooperative competence and learning in a 'high-tech' world Stefanie Enderle, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology: Student cultures under large-scale research circumstances Ernst Schraube, Roskilde University: Digital technologies, expansive learning and the transformation of students' conduct of everyday life
17:30-18:45	Keynote Tim Ingold, University of Aberdeen: Walking, copying and the conduct of everyday life Building 00, auditorium, Chair: Kasper A. Kristensen

18:45-21:00	Reception Building 30
-------------	--

Thursday, June 27, 2013

9:00-10:15	Keynote Silvia Federici, Hofstra University: From crisis to commons: Reproductive work, affective labor and technology in the transformation of everyday life Building 00, auditorium, Chair: Ernst Schraube
10:45-12:15	Collective engagement and agency Chair: Erik Axel Erin Thrift, Simon Fraser University: Structure and agency in everyday life Louise Windfeld Holt, Mødrehjælpen, Copenhagen: Handcraft as social dwelling (or how not to go exotic) Barbara Schneider & Liza McCoy, University of Calgary: Square dancing in the third age: Play, aesthetics, and embodiment in everyday life	Symposium: Conduct of everyday family life: Conflicts, continuity and risk analyzed from children's perspectives Chair: Dorte Kousholt Dorte Kousholt, Aarhus University: Conflicts and transformations of conduct of live in the family Anja Marschall, University of Copenhagen: Children's perspectives on post-divorce family life: Continuity and ruptures Pernille Juhl, Roskilde University: Emergence of conduct of life: Toddler's everyday lives across contexts	Challenges of therapeutic practice Chair: Bodil Maria Pedersen Arthur Arruda Leal Ferreira et al., University of Rio de Janeiro: The production of subjectivities in networks: Following the clues of an applied psychology division Teemu Suorsa, University of Oulu: Solution-focused therapy and research of personal conduct of everyday living Youli Tsirtoglou & Electra Anagnostopoulou, Private practice cooperative partnership "Psychi Logos EpiKinonia", Athens: The psychologist's personal social practice: Structuring the neoliberal inconsistencies in the "flow" of everyday life	Symposium: Technologies in everyday life with health and illness Chair: Lotte Huniche Niamh Stephenson, University of New South Wales & Catherine Mills, Monash University: Representing fetuses versus constituting modes of relationality: Women's experiences with routine ultrasound in pregnancy Jeppe Oute, University of Southern Denmark: Involvement of relatives as a managerial technology in the treatment of depression? On the social negotiation of involvement in everyday life with depression Lotte Huniche, University of Southern Denmark: Self-monitoring in everyday lives with Chronic Obstructive Lung Disease: Managing breathing difficulties, physiological values, professional and personal relations in social practice
12:15-13:00	Lunch
13:00-14:30	Child perspectives and critical interventions Chair: Pernille Juhl Oddbjørg Skjær Ulvik & Liv Mette Gulbrandsen, Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences: Exploring children's everyday life as part of professional practices	Symposium: Children's and young people's competence development and conduct of everyday life: Transitions and dilemmas. Part I: Participation and competence development across cultural boundaries	Conduct of life and practical intervention Chair: Charlotte Højholt Kirsten Gabriele Schrick, TIM-Foundation Munich: "Adolescents present us their lives": A study by the TIM-Foundation Heinz Mölders, NCA	Symposium: Time, standards, and the conduct of everyday life Chair: Morten Nissen Morten Nissen, University of Copenhagen: Mind the (...) break: Standard and off-standard temporal indexes for collectives Lisa Tahara Christensen,

	Anja Hvidtfeldt Stanek, University of Southern Denmark & Maja Røn Larsen, Roskilde University: Small children's development of conduct of everyday life Raquel Souza Lobo Guzzo, Etienne Janiaké, Walter Mariano de Faria Silva Neto, Ana Paula Gomes Moreira & Adinete Sousa da Costa Mezzalira, Pontificia Universidade Católica de Campinas: Everyday life and public elementary school in Brazil: A critical intervention model for psychology practice	Chair: Pär Nygren Frank Jarle Bruun, Lillehammer University College: Dilemmas of everyday life competences of young girls experiencing social and economic change in the High Atlas mountains of Morocco: A research approach using photography Ragnhild Holmen Bjørnsen, Lillehammer University College: Advantages and pitfalls of using self-directed photography in social research on children: The case of emotional competences of children accompanying their parents employed at the Norwegian Foreign Service Mari Rysst, Lillehammer University College and National Institute for Consumer Research: Always a foreigner? Youth constructing national identity through participation and competence building	Projectbureau Amsterdam: Multiloog about everyday life	University of Copenhagen: The re-occurrence of frozen time Peter Busch-Jensen, Roskilde University: The production of temporality in our conduct of everyday life Pernille Hviid, University of Copenhagen: Children's negotiation of their developmental time
15:00-16:30	Political everyday and everyday politics Chair: Athanasios Marvakis Constantine George Caffentzis, University of Southern Maine: Everyday life in the shadow of the debt economy Martin Dege, Clark University: The emergence of cooperation in everyday life Karen Henwood, Nick Pidgeon, Catherine Butler, Karen Parkhill & Fiona Shirani, Cardiff University: Life dilemmas and sustainable transitions: A study of everyday energy practices	Symposium: Children's and young people's competence development and conduct of everyday life: Transitions and dilemmas. Part II: Participation, competence development and close relationships in and across different contexts Chair: Pär Nygren Anne Sigfrid Grønseth, Lillehammer University College: Dealing with competences for close relations: Friendship and intimacy among youth with a migrant background Astrid Halså & Kerstin Söderström, Lillehammer University College: At home and elsewhere: How to handle daily life growing up with a "mad mother" or a "drunk father"? Björg Midtskogen, Lillehammer University College: How can systematic and personally tailored assessments of socially endangered children's competences contribute to the competence development of their educators in daycare and primary school?	Symposium: The conduct of everyday school lives: Children and youth living with testing, diagnosis and marginalisation Chair: Anne Morin Kristine Kousholt, Aarhus University: Participation in test situations as part of pupils' conduct of everyday life Anne Morin, Aarhus University: Children's conduct of life: Across general school, educational psychology consultation and psychiatry Laila Colding Lagermann, Aarhus University: The marginalizing risks of a meaningless schooling: Ethnic minority students' production of meaningful lives	Symposium: Psy-management and the affective formation of educational subjectivities Chair: Dorthe Staunæs Dorthe Staunæs, Aarhus University: Mobilising commitment through leadership practices Kia Wied, Aarhus University, DPU: Motivation as a school organization principle Malou Juelskjær, Aarhus University: Psy-managerial architecture and interior
17:00-18:15	Plenary discussion session: Critical and political dimensions of the study of the conduct of everyday life Charlotte Højholt, Roskilde University: Conduct of life and political conflictuality Ute Osterkamp, Free University Berlin: "There is no right life in the wrong one": Recognizing this dilemma is the first step out of it Thomas Teo, York University: Provincializing subjectivity: The uses and abuses of everyday life for academic theorizing Building 00, auditorium, Chair: Ernst Schraube
20:00	Social dinner Restaurant Spiselloppen, Prinsessegade 1, 1440 København K (Metro: Christianshavn st.)

Friday, June 28, 2013

9:00-10:15	Keynote Darrin Hodgetts, University of Waikato: The ordinary in the extra-ordinary: Everyday lives textured by urban poverty Building 00, auditorium, Chair: Jo Krøjer
------------	--

10:45-12:15	Everyday experience and relationality Chair: Niklas A. Chimirri Alexandra Kent, Keele University & Charles Antaki, Loughborough University: Getting someone to do something: Fault and immediacy Bogdana Humă, Loughborough University & Cosima Rughinis, University of Bucharest: First impression reports as methodically constructed narratives of first acquaintances in daily talk-in-interaction Ofra Shalev, Zefat Academic College, Nehami Baum & Haya Itzhaki, Bar Ilan University: "There's a man in my bed": First sexual experience among traditional newlyweds	Symposium: Transition as central in conceptualization the process in the children's development Chair: Mariane Hedegaard Mariane Hedegaard, University of Copenhagen: Understanding transitions in young children's development Paula Cavada H., University of Copenhagen: Playfulness as mean in children's transition from kindergarten to first year primary Milla Merilehto, University of Oulu: Understanding children: A subject scientific approach to study children and their conduct of life	Disruptions in the conduct of everyday life Chair: Maja Røn Larsen Vilma Hänninen, University of Eastern Finland: Losing the grip: Depression as disruption of everyday life Lisbeth Hybholt, Aarhus University: Patient education in everyday life Rosella Sorte, Manchester Metropolitan University: On the developmental self through food: Migrant women's identities	Analyzing everyday experience and action Chair: Tine Jensen Lilliana Del Busso, Ostfold University College: Young women's embodied experiences in everyday life: Movement, objects and space Estrid Sørensen, Ruhr-University Bochum: The scale of 'situation' and 'practice' in studies of everyday life Daniel Adler, University of Technology Sydney: Artifacts of project based work, activity and everyday action
12:15-13:00	Lunch
13:00-14:30	The art of living Chair: Martin Dege Kurt Bader, University of Lüneburg: To create presuppositions: Arts in everyday life Kasper Levin, Roskilde University: Capoeira, ADHD and aesthetic movements of life Tine Jensen, Roskilde University: Remembering forgetfulness	Symposium: Developments in the research on the conduct of everyday life Chair: Karin Jurczyk Karin Jurczyk, German Youth Institute: Conceptual and methodological shifts in the research on the conduct of everyday life Kerstin Hein, German Youth Institute, Ana Cárdenas, Universidad Diego Portales, Anna Proske, German Youth Institute: Working mothers rearranging their conduct of everyday life in relation to biographical turning points Anna Proske, Kerstin Hein & Michaela Schier, German Youth Institute: Parents on the move: Couples negotiating a familial conduct of everyday life under the conditions of job mobility	Contemplation, independence and medication in everyday school life Chair: Allan Westerling Anne Maj Nielsen & Marie Kolmos, Aarhus University: Contemplative awareness-culture in schoolchildren's everyday life Blair Stevenson, University of Oulu: Can you export independence? A theoretical framework exploring children's independence as a hidden variable in current discourses on educational success in Finland Karen-Lis Kristensen, Aalborg University & Line Lerche Mørck, Aarhus University: ADHD medication in a Danish primary school	Methodological strategies and research practices Chair: Hans Sønderstrup-Andersen Katia Dupret Søndergaard, Aarhus University & Jo Krøjer, Roskilde University: Heterogenic listening: Ethics in work life analysis Marcia Hespanhol Bernardo & Filipe Uveda Martins, Pontificia Universidade Católica de Campinas: Work Social Psychology: Focus on everyday life of the workers by a counter-hegemonic approach Caroline Nilson, Paul Morrison & Cathy Fetherston: Murdoch University: Being immersed in the everyday lives of an Australian Aboriginal community: The 'personal development' required of a non-Aboriginal researcher
15:00-16:15	Plenary discussion session: Subjectivity and knowledge: Critical participatory methodology in the study of the conduct of everyday life Dorte Kousholt, Aarhus University: Research as cooperation about exploring conditions of the conduct of life Niamh Stephenson, University of New South Wales, Sydney: Beyond experience as representation Lene Tanggaard, Aalborg University: Is there an 'I' conducting research? Building 00, auditorium, Chair: Ernst Schraube
16:15-16:30	Closing session			